

Tasnim McCormick Benhalim

Tasnim (Tahz-neem) McCormick Benhalim is co-founder of the Islamic Art Revival Series and founder of DiversityWealth, a training and development company. In all aspects of her life, Tasnim values the work of inter-cultural communication to build bridges of understanding across the diverse peoples of our great and beautiful world.

Tasnim has a strong background in education, diversity and cross-cultural training and facilitation, including a B.A. in humanities from Oklahoma State University and an M.S. in education from the California State University, Fullerton.

Tasnim continues her frequent travels, and wherever she goes always manages to find time for meaningful conversation over a good cup of tea; these are her favorite moments. She treasures practices that engage her in a rich and full life.
