

Selwa Moharram received her BA in Arts and Performance from the University of Texas at Dallas with a concentration in Visual Arts in 2016. She recently exhibited her first solo show, entitled III. Making Peace with Myself, at the Continental Lofts Gallery in June of 2017. She currently resides in Plano, where she divides her time between working as a communications assistant and art program coordinator, creating narrative artwork, and dancing.